Coordinators Teleconference

Jim reported that the coordinators call was held. The surcharge contracts are in the AG's office and drafts for the covid contracts were received Friday. During the call, discussions were had regarding the application, deliverables, and the training being organized with some CST tracks.

FY23 Grant Application

The FY23 Grant Application was approved by the commissioners earlier today. The original cash match amount of $36,272.00 was approved. If you would like to be on the call with the funding panel, please let Jim know.

Budget Update

The updated budget was reviewed. There were no questions.

Other Business

Jim reported that the City 1% application was received and will be due March 1st. The proposal of asking for $10,000 again received no objections. There was a discussion concerning the Covid money rewarded by the state and the additional requirements for federal funds. Jim mentioned that the reconciliation numbers for December were recently received and the first three numbers match. The new commissioner will be the new liaison to the board. Jim announced that he will present to Kiwanis on February 3rd about JFDC. There is also a training coming up if anyone is interested hosted by the Children's Justice Project.
