Coordinators Teleconference

JR explained that he attended the coordinators call. There is discussion of each Drug Court doing their policy and procedure manual which it was suggested that this be completed within 6 to 9 months. JFDC was provided with an outline to structure the policy and procedure manual. The next coordinators call will provide more information on this as well. The outline provided is from the Adult Treatment Court structure and JFDC was told to see if this adult treatment manual would work with the JFDC procedures.

Budget Update-There were no significant budget updates made other than being informed that all is going well.
